

The programme

Day 1 – Monday, June 10th

10:30–11:30

Registration of participants

11:30–12:45

Launch of the Forum, getting to know each other and short introduction to the topic

12:45–1:45

Lunch

1:45–3:15

First block of parallel session sessions

- How to inform and activate those who usually don't have time for us?
- How to involve migrants in decision making?
- Future: A place where arguments are harder to argue and solutions are easier to find
- Creation of youth policies in local governments - good practices, examples, challenges
- Professional burnout of participatory practitioners

3:15–3:30

Coffee break

3:30–5:30

Second block of parallel sessions

- Participatory/civil budgets - let's talk among practitioners
- How to participate in rural areas - challenges and examples
- How to solve conflicts?
- Which tools work well during participatory activities in the field of urban renewal/regeneration - guidelines from research projects
- Plans in the hands of the citizens! Participation in city-wide planning
- Different ways of neighbourhood self-organisation and what are the lessons learnt
- Involving young people in local decision-making

since 6:30

Evening activities

Day 2 – Tuesday, June 11th

9:30–10:30

Breakfast meetings

- Stakeholder analysis - who to talk to in the participation process?
- "Export of participation - how to share experience and work with partners in international projects?"

- Gdansk City Street Standard
- "Game of Change" - a game about social organizations
- Participatory housing cooperatives and communities
- Przemysł/Think about it/Think it through! - Together for 100%
- Talking despite the differences - examples
- School participatory budgets
- Urban Labs

10:30–10:45

Coffee break

10:45–12:15

First block of parallel session sessions

- Deliberate/participatory/civil budget - how to achieve this?
- Engineer and resident at one table - how to organise participation in technical projects
- How to care for accessibility in participatory processes and think about the needs of different groups (e.g. blind people, people with intellectual disabilities)
- Hate in Social Media - how to deal with it?
- Who is a "participator"?
- The latest research on participation in Poland - what does it mean?
- The academic community (scientists and students) - how to include them in participatory processes?

12:15–12:45

Coffee break

12:45–2:15

Second block of parallel sessions

- Ensuring equal treatment in participatory processes
- Facilitation of large groups - practical exercises
- How to talk about consultations?
- Resistance in social activities. Enemy or friend?
- Let's talk about how to talk, i.e. about the dialogue method
- Ukrainian issues

2:15–3:00

Plenary session and conclusion of the Forum

3:00–3:45

Lunch